

Multiple Buyers:

More than one individual or company can buy a lamb or Pen-lot together. One person acts as the "Buyer" for bidding purposes. Stop by the Buyer's Information Table at the auction if you have any questions.

Auction Bidder

- No Buyer Number Required
- Contact information or business card is handed to Auction Staff when lot is purchased
- Amount bid is per pound of total pen lot weight
- Payment to cashier (cash, check or credit card) is expected by the end of the sale.

Not able to make it but would like to participate?

Bids can be submitted on your behalf by contacting a member of the Jackson County Fair Auction Committee
Ron Anderson
(541) 821-3107

John Dimick
(541) 821-4631
or

Rob Casebier
(541) 944-3886

SALES RECEIPT:

CHOICES:

- 1) have the meat processed for personal use
- 2) donate to local charity (Access, etc.)
- 3) if you don't want the meat, mark 'Resale' you will pay the difference between Bid price and market price

Example of Single Lot from above:

Cash out:

- 1) have the meat processed for personal use
⇒ Box 2 on the sales receipt: Select the Meat Processor. Pay Amount Due $650
- 2) donate to local charity (Access, etc.)
⇒ Box 2b on the sales receipt: Select the local charity. Pay Amount Due $650
- 3) send meat for Resale (goes to wholesaler)
⇒ Box 3 on the sales receipt: Pay the Amount Due listed in this box. If resale price is $0.90 per lb. then the cost is total price—resale price=$533.00

Example of Multiple Lot from above:

You will have a sales receipt for each animal.

- 1) have the meat processed for personal use
⇒ Box 2 on the sales receipts: Select the Meat Processor pay Amount Due $1330
- 2) donate to local charity (Access, etc.)
⇒ Box 2b on the sales receipts: Select the local charity. Pay Amount Due $1330
- 3) send meat for Resale
⇒ Box 3 on the sales receipts: Pay the Amount Due listed in this box. If resale (market) price is $0.90 per lb then the cost is total price—resale price=$1090.60

Signer will be the point of contact for any billing issues